Consequently, as far as apostolicity is concerned, the unity, catholicity, and holiness are signs of true apostolicity. Moreover, there is no such thing as a church that has apostolicity but does not display the other dimensions of the church. As such, apostolicity is an obligatory dimension of the church if the remaining three are indeed present. Keywords ...

The Church, as the truth revealed to the world, must therefore be universal, existing at all times, since her foundation by Christ, and in all places, since she is the Church of God. Our Church teaches the truths which were revealed to our first parents, handed down by the patriarchs, defined by the law of Moses, proclaimed by the gospel of Jesus Christ, and spread abroad by the apostles and their successors throughout the world. These same truths will be proclaimed, unaltered, until the end ...
