Picasso, at the request of art dealer Ambroise Vollard. The theme of the painter and his model which Picasso explores in his work represents the kind of ideal artistic vision which leads to Frenhorfer's death as he attempts to portray the expression of a soul, to reach perfection through a work of art. The artist at work is a running theme in Picasso's oeuvre. His many self-portraits, alone or with a model, are also reflections on the creative process. One of the most prolific painters of ...
