The Four Feathers is a 1902 adventure novel by British writer A. E. W. Mason that has inspired many films of the same title. In December 1901, Cornhill Magazine announced the title as one of two new serial stories to be published in the forthcoming year. Against the background of the Mahdist War, young Feversham disgraces himself by quitting the army, which others perceive as cowardice, symbolized by the four white feathers they give him.

The Four Feathers - Wikipedia

The four feathers are a symbol of cowardice, given to a young man when he resigns his army commission upon hearing about the start of military action in the Sudan. Three of the feathers come from other men in his unit, the fourth from his fiancée when she learns The Four Feathers is a soap opera about honesty, bravery, honor and love during the time of Britain's war in the Sudan.
